THE NEWS.

A dispatch from New Orleans announces the arrival of Minister McLane's Secretary of Legation, bearing the Mexican treaty recently ratified by the Mexican government. The treaty provides for the perpetual right of way across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec from the Rio Grande to Mazatlan, and from Cosatlan to Arizaco.

Yesterday the fact factory of J. Toy, at Simsbury, Conn., took fire, while a number of operatives were at work in the building, and burned with such rapidity that seven females in an upper story were consumed.

We also have a distressing account of the fall of a building in New York which buried a number of persons under the ruins.

Matters at Washington do not seem to get any clearer. The Democrats talk of uniting their forces.

Mr. Conway member elect from Kansas, arrived at Washington yesterday, and it is stated will ask for the admission of that Territory into the Union.

The great Union meeting held in New York Monday evening culminated in nominating O. S. Scott for the Presidency.

Hon. LYNN Boyd died at his residence in Kentucky on Sunday last.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE.—The Senate takes the lion's share.—Our readers will see, from a glance at the report of yesterday's doings in Congress, that the Southern members have, as usual, appropriated to themselves the Chairmanships of the seven leading Committees.

Deveraux is refused the post he used to hold, as Chairman of the Committee on Territories, because he does not wholly subscribe to the doctrine of the St. Louis Convention, in relation to the Territories. Of course, the North is expected to "submit," with entire resignation, to this "sectional" arrangement of the Senate Committees. Union-Savers, please take notice!

GOOD APPOINTMENTS.—It is confidentially reported that Mr. ROBERT MEXTER, of this city, is to have the post of Second Assistant in the Bank Comptroller's office, and Mr. C. L. SNOWS, of the Free Democrat, that of Auditing Clerk in the office of Secretary of State. Both appointments are good ones.

A Madison correspondent of the Free Democrat adds, that Mr. ISLEY, of Madison, is to be Assistant Secretary of State, Mr. A. J. CHATO, of Palmyra, a member of the late Assembly, Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Mr. PAGE, of Platteville, a clerk in the same office. These selections are all good, and will prove acceptable to the public.

DEATH OF A CATHOLIC BISHOP.—The Augustus (Ga.) Constitutionalist announces the decease of JOHN BARRY, Archbishop of the diocese of Georgia. Mr. BARRY was born in Parish Oglethorpe county of Georgia, Ireland, in July 1789, and emigrated to the United States about the year 1822. He was made Bishop of the diocese of Georgia in 1857.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—An important decision has been made by the Supreme Court of Illinois which is regarded there as rendering city and county in the State a virtual republication by the Supreme Court of the millions of millions issued for railroad and other purposes.

THE DEERHOLM MYSTERY.—The telegraph reports that the body of Mr. CAMPBELL, the prominent citizen of Detroit about whose mysterious disappearance so much has been said and written—was discovered on Monday in the river. His watch and valuables were found upon him. This, if it does not clear up the mystery, throws a new light upon it.

ASSIGNMENT.—The extensive provision house of VAN BRUNT & WATSON, New York, who are largely engaged in pork packing, have made an assignment. It is currently stated that the liabilities are upwards of $250,000.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—The London Times' correspondent at Southampton states that the visitors to the Great Eastern have nearly all fallen off, and that arrangements are being made to lay up the ship snug for winter.

T. W. BROWN proposes a trip North on the Lakes. Professional?

SINGULAR DEATH.—The following incident is communicated to the Eastern Statesman. It occurred in Upper Glenville, Schenectady county, N. Y.:

A very strange death occurred here last night, just before half past nine from my house. A man about 35 years of age, in full health, and a very stout man, left the house just at dark on horseback. He had with him a little jug of whiskey (two quarts), and it would seem, the end of the halter into the hands of the jug, and then hung the jug over his neck, so that it must have swung before him. About an hour after he left, when it was quite dark, he was found by the side of the road dead.

His horse, from appearance, had fallen, and in the fall the jug had made a noise under its neck and struck him in the head. In the struggle the horse too had been so involved in the halter that it had fallen the second time, and so wound the latter around his own neck, that it was upon his back and nearly dead. The horse and man were found together like Mæcæus, of Byronic fame. It is said that he was a drinking man. He was a man of family, having a wife and five small children. It is not even conjectured that the whiskey had anything to do with the death, except as it was in the jug. The jug, man and horse were all found together by the side of the road dead.

POLICY OF THE REPUBLICANS.—The Bulletin Journal, referring to the next Legislature, says:

The policy which Senator Bennett has uniformly advocated, of completing the public works already begun before now new ones are commenced, and the latter are steadily pursued. It is fully to expect to supply our State in a day with all the great institutions which the Eastern States have gradually built up. Many important matters will come up before this Legislature which will require constant attention and delicate handling. We have no fear that the confidence which the people have manifested in the ability, discretion and integrity of the Republican majorities has been misplaced.

THE CITY.

FLYING FUN.—The intersection of Wisconsin and East Water streets has been all yesterday the locality of much life. Not the still life which usually clothes those corners, but a busy, bustling, and noisy life.

Many and various were the holes and corners with which Cow Day abounded, and which its demolition has brought to light, and singular were the places where the debris lay in the bowels of the earth, men, women and children were indifferently mingled together, and the air was filled with a cloud of dust.

During the burning heat of summer, sweating in the sun, with the walls damp and mud from the filthy drainings of the streets, and in the midst of putrid animal and vegetable matter, rendered still more offensive by the process of respiration, miserable wretches were huddled together like so many swine, while the air was filled with a cloud of dust.

As the demolition proceeded, the air was filled with a cloud of dust, and the process of respiration, miserable wretches were huddled together like so many swine, while the air was filled with a cloud of dust.
